

ALTERNATIVE GM FUELS

1998 Chevrolet Cavalier Bi-Fuel Natural Gas Vehicle

The Chevrolet Bi-Fuel Cavalier is a natural for the demands of your fleet. Thoughtfully engineered to make your life easier. This AFV operates on CNG, then switches over to regular gasoline when the CNG is empty. The integrated fuel system is specifically designed by General Motors Corp. and IMPCO Technologies, Inc. to maximize engine performance.

Manufacturer:

General Motors Corporation

Fuel:

Natural Gas/Unleaded Gasoline

Availability:

1998 calendar year, pending completion of validation
Order information available Fall 1997

Emission Classification:

To be determined

Fuel Capacity:

CNG-6.9 gasoline gallon equivalent @ 3600 psi
Gasoline-15.2 U.S. gallons

Fueling Methods for CNG:

Public Station-fast fill (5-6 minutes)
Home-fast fill or time fill (5-6 hours)

Warranty:

3 year/36,000 mile GM standard New Vehicle Limited Warranty

Additional Information:

GCMR-3,909 lbs.
Max. Payload-842 lbs. (include. passengers and cargo)
CNG Type II Tank-Designed specifically for GM and exceeds NGV2 standards.

For more information on GM's available alternative fuel vehicles or a dealer near you, please call 1-888-GM-AFT-4U.